

Introducing Myself

Answer these questions in preparation for your first connection with your partner school

What is something interesting about myself?

Why am I interested in connecting with the world?

What is something interesting about my school?

What happens at my school that makes it a true Catholic school in the Edmund Rice tradition?

What is a question I have about my partner school?

What would I like to know more about my partner school's country?